

Curriculum Vitae

Brian Madeley

Born in Johannesburg 1940.

Educated final years Grey College, Bloemfontein.

1959 Airforce Gym 1 year, after that joined SA Engineering Corps (Sappers) part time for 4 years.

1960 to 1964 Apprentice Radiotrician. Major responsibility Manufacture, Installation and maintenance of supervisory system between Kelvin Power Station and Diepsloot Sewerage farm.

1966-67 travelled overseas UK , Europe and Canada.

Met and married Lynda in the UK. Returned to SA and worked for companies like Rank Xerox, Oldham batteries, Bowthorpe Hellerman Deutsch, Reyrolle Switchgear.

In 1997 started Iso-tech Systems and in 2011 sold my business to Nexans France.

During my working career became Chairman of the AMEU Affiliates (business sector of the Assoc of Municipal Electricity Undertakings) Kept the position for 12 years and was made an Honorary Member of both organizations

Retired to Plettenberg Bay. We have 2 children and 3 grandchildren. Committee member for NSRI and PAWS.