

Adrian Smith

Summary:

27 years' experience in mining related service industries, predominantly in South, West and East African countries.

Experience:

Sandvik 1994 - 2015

1994 – 1998 Zimbabwe

Financial Officer

1998 – 2004 Zimbabwe

Managing Director

2004 – 2009 South Africa

Business Line Manager for parts and service, and later promoted to Aftermarket Director for region Africa: including South Africa, Zimbabwe, Zambia, Botswana, Tanzania and Ghana.

2009 – 2011 South Africa

Regional Vice President Business Infrastructure Africa, ensuring the required aftermarket support structures, in Southern, West and East Africa

2011 – 2015 South Africa

Vice President Distribution services Region Africa, interface between Region Africa and the company's global distribution operation based in Eindhoven.

Bosch Rexroth 2015 -2021

Hytec Africa Regional Manager, responsible for the establishment of Hydraulic workshops and support structures in Botswana and Zambia to grow the customer base. Expanding the existing customer base in the Hydraulic related industries in Mozambique and Namibia

Education:

1992 -University of Cape Town:

MBA- Marketing and Business Administration

1983 - Rhodes University:

B Com (Hons) Marketing/Marketing Management,

1980 - 1982 – Rhodes University:

B Com Business Administration and Management, Economics.

Motivation:

Recognizing the diversity within the wealth profile of the residents of Brackenridge Estate, my motivation is to ensure that within the confines of the Homeowners Association, a balance is maintained between Brackenridge's status as a premier housing estate and affordability to the current and future homeowners.